NO HOLDS BARREL DAILY WORKER

By Stan Kurman

Slapping down the little thought after another Yankee pitching plan for opener against Senators next week jumbled. A 3-day fiasco, suffered in Saturday's game with Little Rock, will keep him out of the lineup. Red was supposed to get the coveted assignment. Lefty Gunning next in line, still troubled by sore arm. Lefty showed plenty in 8-0 shutout over Little Rock yesterday and will probably be O.K. in time for the game. The Yankees have new American Basketball League team, the Newark Bears, 37-34, at Armada Hall, Newark, N.J. But Negro Renaissance five which was supposed to be in Chicago two weeks ago has not been heard from.

Nukes odds on Chi Cubs to win N. pennant. team hasn't shown too much down South. ... Arthurite Bartlett doesn't figure to get in too many ball games. ... that leaves a big hole at short. ... Dirty Dean is still uncertain. ... he's badly needed by the Cubs expect to get anywhere. ... and Augie Galan's knee ailment makes the outfield uncertain. ... Reds and Giants look slender. ... but folks like to string with a winner which isn't such bad judgment at that.

Big Tom Wright is Terry's biggest problem child right now. ... Terry tried to ship Tom to Jersey City last week but a tummy ache and no soap as the ex-Dodger has been turned out the limit of three times already. ... Bill then announced that Tom was in the line the one-man outfielder came up with a sudden hitting spree over the weekend. ... homer Saturday and triple with three on Sunday. ... So by Tom must finally get to Terry and find room for him.

Lappi Lee Durocher is certain that he can succeed where Del Baker failed and tame his new tailer Bob Popenberger. ... He has great confidence but could never win by training rules. ... If Leo can tone Popen down the Dodgers will have another winning pitcher. ... talking about winning pitchers, the Brooks have come up with a fine crop of rookie hurlers in Wynn, Louch, Evans and Coste. ... the boys have been doing swell since the season started. ... First glimpse of the new season for the Dodgers will be Friday in annual pre-season local inaugural with Yanks. ... Giants in Saturday meet Cleveland Indians at Polo Grounds.

Zuke Rains is showing effects of Terry's tutelage and has turned in some nice fielding at first for Giants this spring. ... Tom had some arm Jack LaRocca didn't have a run chance with the Dodgers. ... the former Tex the High Hurler is back in Kansas City. ... he's taking a long rest to get the kinks out of his arm.

The St. Louis Cards, dark horse in the race are currently leading the Grapefruit League with 20 wins and 7 lost according to all available figures there were never any hit no run efforts there in the Citrus Circuit prior to this spring. ... and there have been two such efforts this year. ... two Cincinnati Reds hurlers ganged up on the Dodgers for one wonder feat early in the season. ... and along came Cy Blanton with a single-handed non-stop effort for the Pirates against the weak Chi. White Sox Sunday. ... only one man got on base and he got a pass.

English track fans are reported upset about outdoor mile champ Stanley Wooderson's decision to run in the June 17 Princeton meet. ... that put the kink on a scheduled July 20 England-American meet. ... Dorsey, Fordham's sensational unbeaten twirler, has signed up with the Yanks. ... who said no Yankee monopoly.

St. John's Picked To Lick LIU '94 at Dexter Park Today

St. John's University missed its chance to get the L. I. U. Bulldogs on the basketball court but it's opportunity for revenge on the basketball field today. The annual Metropolitan Athletic meet on the diamond today with St. John's, New York, and Wagner, Captain Ed. Ryan of St. John's who led them to a national championship last year, will pitch in the ninth is expected to be in this hurling match. L. I. U. Capt. Dave Smith by his own admission, Tom Amica should know too much for the opportunity. ... Black Freeman, former St. John's basketball center who has shipped many a Redman 1 to court line is now coaching the L. I. U. basketball team.

The revamped N. Y. U. who is showing some of its power at the moment, particularly at the ball, may have a more adjustable in the Columbia League. Last night's victory over the Violets was a 12-10, scoring 12 runs in the process. Mike Maganella who was the Violets' pitcher today is expected to repeat and help tame the team.
